DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings were received on 6/4/2001. These drawings are acceptable and approved by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 4 – 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Since claims 1 – 3 have been cancelled, it is unclear to what claim, claims 4 – 10 depend on. Furthermore, original independent claim 1 differs from newly added independent claims 11, 14 and 15. Therefore, claims 4 – 10 cannot depend on claims 11, 14 and 15.

Information Disclosure Statement

4. The IDS filed on 4/6/2001 has been considered and recorded in file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2682

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

6. Claims 11 – 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Irvin (US 6,021,317).

Regarding claim 11, Irvin teaches a first antenna for transmitting signals within the transmission frequency band of analog/digital frequency range; a second antenna for transmitting signals within the transmission frequency band of analog/digital frequency range; a first reception antenna for receiving signals within the reception frequency band of analog/digital frequency range; and a second reception antenna for receiving signals within the reception frequency band of analog/digital frequency range (Col. 4, lines 7 – 10 and 24 – 35).

Regarding claim 12, Irvin teaches that the first transmission antenna and the second transmission antenna can be of any type (Col. 6, lines 36 – 41).

Regarding claim 13, Irvin teaches that the first reception antenna and the second reception antenna can be of any type (Col. 6, lines 36 – 41).

Regarding claim 14, Irving teaches a first antenna for transmitting signals within the transmission frequency band of analog/digital frequency range; a second antenna for transmitting signals within the transmission frequency band of analog/digital frequency range; a first reception antenna for receiving signals within the reception frequency band of analog/digital frequency range; and a second reception antenna for receiving signals within the reception frequency band of analog/digital frequency range (Col. 4, lines 7 – 10 and 24 – 35). Irving also teaches that the first transmission antenna and second transmission antenna can be of any type and also the first reception antenna and the second transmission antenna can be of any type (Col. 6, lines 36 – 41).

Regarding claim 15, the claim is interpreted and rejected for the same reason as set forth in claim 11.

Regarding claim 16, the claim is interpreted and rejected for the same reason as set forth in claim 12.

Regarding claim 17, the claim is interpreted and rejected for the same reason as set forth in claim 13.
